Hey Jeffrey. Assuming Kyoto is cancelled right?

Just wondering if you wanted to try to reschedule. Wondering because I'll call some off the stuff that I set up, but rescheduling will be slightly different for them than canceling.

Also, on a personal and more selfish note, I'm wondering if I should be looking for alternatives for shipping our dogs or whether you're likely to reschedule something relatively soon.

PS Emailed Sultan a few times, but didn't get a reply. Not urgent that I meet him, but curious if he's off-grid or just not responsive.
