Dear Friend

You have heard or read, John Catsimatidis, candidate for New York City Mayor, has been underwriting the new Broadway play, "The Little Flower," a compelling one man play about one of New York's great Mayors, Mayor La Guardia. <http://www.nytimes.com/2013/06/22/nyregion/catsimatidiss-theatrical-bond-with-la-guardia.html?>

After full house performances in all the boroughs, John has brought the play back to Manhattan for a final six performances before the Fall elections.

If you have not seen the play, or have seen the play and want to bring someone who has not seen the play, please use the corresponding link below and tell us how many in your party. We need the names and email addresses of all guests.

This is a great play about a great mayor and it was inspirational in John's decision to run, so we hope you will join us. These tickets are at no cost and are John's way of expressing his values and vision for the future of New York.

Look forward to hearing from you.
