I agree. We (white guy) talked about that.

Makes it awkward since your strategy was to get an offer. Samsung still a fairly crappy alternative but potentially lucrative.

I lose a lot of credibility working there. I'd need to somehow pull a marissa / yhoo and breath life into it very quickly.

yes, but he cannot offer something and be turned down.

Got it. The problem is the people I talk to have no information. All they want to talk about is a new phone operating system that is dead on arrival ("tizen"). Maybe they think I want that but I was clear, no.

I laid out a bunch of options. Today the two low level people I deal with are meeting. The white guy will get back to me.

I told him I want to propose something they want. He got it.

But there is a lot getting lost (perhaps intentionally) between the two folks I talk to and the top. Remember there can also be lost face for JK since this could look like a risk to him (admission of needing senior and white help).
