Hi Jeffrey,

I've been fortifying the wiki article. And will be working on the .net site this week with Tyler.

I'd like to get your name into the headline of a published article, preferably Huffington Post. Unfortunately Ntl Review only put your name into the subtitle.

For a title, I need a project or entity that you are responsible for entirely or almost entirely?

Could you give me a suggestion other than the PED?

Thank you,
