once we'll have all the rocks drawn then we can paint the rocks.. maybe is better to draw all the building first and then start painting. painting it would be easier because we dont have to do measurements and taping.. i built the arch like in mamluk architecture stile...with two arches.. if you find some design for the inside door please send it to me so i can reproduce. we saw a nice design for the top door inside arch when you were here but i cant find it.. thank you,
ion
