Asked if I am going to work. Then said we should stay in touch and talk if I want to work. It seemed pretty real.

Told him non compete for rest of year and would like to stay in touch through that.

Good talk with tim. He said we should talk when I want to work full time. Told him about Andreessen and winding down non compete.
He values being low key. What do you think of walking away from ms or delaying until July 1 when we don't need to do sec filing?
