Mr.Epstein attached is the picture of the wood delivery, after discussing the removal of material with Ion & Michael for the scaffold project and to relocate it into the basement and back up without banging up the walls would be tough (I do not want to move the wood on the main decorative elevator) .It may make more sense to return the wood to Home Depot and re purchase after June 9th ,The other option is to move the material behind the red couch in the Main Stair hall which will be out of the way but still unsightly. Please advise what works for you. Thanks Richard
