GAME CHANGER

This is a GAME CHANGER in the 2013 Mayors Race I Received The Liberal Party Endorsement
Just as Rudy Giuliani received the endorsement in his two successful campaigns for Mayor

The last two election results state it clearly

Romney Lost New York City	81% - 19 %
Paladino Lost New York City	83% - 17%
Wendy Long Lost New York City	86% - 14%

We Need Democrats...We Need Independents ...We need all New Yorkers

I now have an additional Ballot Line that will allow Democrats and Independents to Vote for me without making them feel Guilty in Casting their Vote for a Republican....

The Potential Votes on this Line Give us the Ability to Win in November ...
This Gives ALL NEW YORKERS THE OPPORTUNITY TO VOTE FOR US

Liberal Party Endorses John Catsimatidis for Mayor

New York: The Liberal Party of New York State today endorsed John Catsimatidis, the successful businessman and Republican as their nominee for Mayor of the City of New York. The endorsement was made Tuesday morning at a press conference by Liberal Party Chairman Jack Olchin.

Chairman Jack Olchin said "John Catsimatidis understands history and respects the power of a successful Republican in New York City electoral politics. In addition, John also understands the concerns and aspirations of all New Yorkers as a people's Mayor just like the first Republican-Liberal Party fusion Mayor, Fiorello LaGuardia in the 1940's. For these reasons the our party is proud to endorse John Catsimatidis as the Liberal Party nominee for Mayor of New York City."

"A member of the Liberal Party recently described John Catsimatidis as an 'uncommon common man', an individual who speaks to New Yorkers in a language they understand; with a genuine feeling and concern for their well-being that will benefit every neighborhood in the city and by all of us who care about New York's present and future."

Liberal Party Executive Director Martin I. Hassner said, "I am confident that the candidacy of John Catsimatidis will be helping the Liberal Party rebuild on a sound foundation of principles that will not only benefit the party but, will benefit New York City as well. John will fill the void left by Tom Allon who was our standard bearer until his recent withdrawal. The first thing we ask of John is that like Mr. Allon, he works to ensure that the Liberal Party has the signatures need to get on the ballot."

"The Liberal Party appreciates Catsimatidis' acceptance of its principal campaign issue: a comprehensive reform of the education system with a concentration on teaching children, not testing them, and providing intensive training and a Master's degree to teachers to the best job possible in their crucial work."

"John Catsimatidis is a real businessman and manager who will open the city's books as he would at any business. He will expose the mistakes, the bad judgment and the total lack of oversight that has caused the budget to go up 55% in the past year. He will stop the raising of taxes and fees to meet those expenses...mostly at the cost of our middle class."

"This is a manager who has dealt with unions his entire business career and understands the needs of union leaders and women who belong to unions. He will negotiate as an individual who understand how to relate to the leadership of unions to hammer out new municipal union contracts that will save the city millions while providing the best possible deal for the workers. John Catsimatidis understands that with hands on training our police force will minimize the difficulties experienced with 'stop and frisk' until the arrival of new electronic detection technology which will totally eliminate the need for the excessive use of force."

"And finally John Catsimatidis has created tens of thousands of jobs over the course of his business career. Few people have the experience. But, John recognizes that times have changed...that making New York the high tech city of the world is essential. Jobs for the middle class without a high-tech educational background are critical for our city. Whether it is the re-expansion of basic healthcare employment in a new attempt to bring healthcare to within ten minutes of every citizen."

combination of new ingredients, Catsimatidis is personally committed to make jobs happen.

“He’s going to be a great Mayor and we’re proud to help him when and where we can”.

John Catsimatidis said, “I am proud to accept the nomination of the Liberal Party and with their support and the Party create the coalition needed to win in November. “
