Dear Lawrence,

This is great. Thank you. I will follow up with Michelle as well.

Until soon and best regards,

Dear Mr. Krauss,

I hope this finds you well.

I am in the process of drafting several feature articles for Jeffrey's foundation for Forbes, National Geographic and others. Jeffrey was wondering if I could contact you to learn more about your new post-doc program for a possible article.

Also, if you could send me any documents or point me to documents that you would like to focus on, that would be extremely helpful. Once I have a draft of the article, I will send it to you to review.

For reference, I write the press and content for Jeffrey's foundation. I recently published several articles for the foundation in Forbes, Huffington Post and National Review Online (although I'm not a conservative! Just a lowly agnostic).

Attached are some past press links of mine. I have a background in editing and film production and a BA & MA Honors in History from Oxford University in the UK.

Thank you and best regards,
