Probably it wasn't clear from my prev emails, but I love the idea- it's insane enough that it will probably give me the same dopamine boost(speaking of it - I'm well aware of that feeling) I used to get in the past.

I got to sort some details and have to talk to Joi but you can take this as a tentative yes modulo some conditions and the stuff I need to sort+Joi.

I'll know more later this week/next week
