Jeffrey,

I spoke to David Bernstein in California regarding the Boeing.

He is interested in working with us to generate a clientele base to operate the Boeing on his charter certificate. There are two possible scenarios, one being a concert tour which could last 12 to 18 months, and second, a Royal Family in middle east that would purchase a block of hours, according to David he has many potential customers in that area that are willing to purchase 300+ hours.

At this time we are working the cost of operation for the next two years including maintenance, to formulate an hourly rate to present to you,.

Do you want me to pursue this further?

thank you,
Larry
