Jeffrey,

The Florida dealer was able to find the same tires at a reduced price of $225 each
Also he said we can get Hancock brand tire for $145

There will be a charge of about $100 for balancing and mounting

I am waiting on a price for the goodyear which I may get later today)

Thank you

Jeffrey,

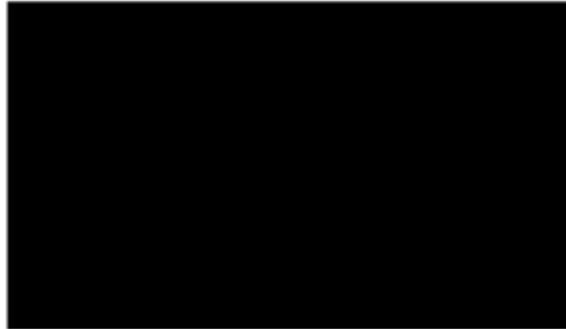

4 tires were purchased on 10-28-08 costing $312.50 each and the mileage at the time was 19,205

Current milage is 35,189 which means we got 15,984 miles from those tires.

Janusz dropped the car off today at the Benz dealer and was informed those exact tires may be a bit difficult to find an exact replacement for but they will search and let us know what they come up with.

Thank you
