The contract is for only 3 months...but I'm just starting to get a better idea of the bussines so I can say I would need more...let's see what is happening now, because so far I didn't have acces to all the informations, and wasn't invited to any meeting. The only thing that I've done so far was market research, that I could easily done from home. Maybe I'm not that smart then I thought I am...or just not having brilliant ideas from a marketer perspective.

My bf is looking desperatly for a good place to live, but they are all very expensive, and there will be the problem with 3or 6 months rent in advance which is an amount thet either of has has it right now, so this makes looking even more complicated :(We can afford month to month pay, but not in advance.

About Lyndon I can say that maybe I was a bit affraid of, but can't say why. I feel somehow that I own him for the help I've got from him...

he was not sure if your internship was for 3 or six months, He said he tried to seporate you from the rest of the employees by inviting you to the party , but you declined, I hope your boyfriend finds a great place for the two of you to live.
