Gary,

I am on island Monday and will discuss with Tom but why does it cost $3000 to install two doors. What is special about these? Is there a special piece of equipment that is needed to hang them? If you can provide some details on that Tom and I can go back to K&S

Thanks

Marc

when k&s bid the wind doors the bid was worded as two pair of doors. Shelia the business partner wrote the bid up but using $7,200 the price of one opening. I found this out after I left and suggested that Tom go back to them and tell them that they should give us the second opening for $3,800 because they made the error on the bid.

The good thing is Kent does very good work, the bad is they run a poor business. the other bid we got was $18,000+

attached is a change order for one pair additional breezeway doors and two bathroom windows for the relax room

The initial quote was only for one pair ($7200.00) of louvered doors not 2 pair. K & S are supplying the second door for $3800

Tom has reviewed and approved scope of work

are you OK with this?
