Subject: Graf and Lull Machine

Jeffrey,

I just spoke with Gary K regarding Scott Graf's daily rate that I just received which did not change his payout rate and he told me that he spoke with you and your ok with the rate as is for now. (please confirm)

Also Arran requested me to look for a replacement Lull Machine. Just to give you an idea of the cost the Lull on LSJ was purchased in May 2007 and its a 2001 model. Cost was $79,500 and it cost another $6k to ship to LSJ and since 2008 we have purchased parts totaling $35k making this total expense on this machine $120,500. some of these parts was the most recent one's from Caribbean HD which is really silly that we spent this money and a month later were looking for a newer machine.

Thank you

Emad Hanna
