Sultan Ahmed Bin Sulayem
DP World

Dear Sultan Ahmed Bin Sulayem,
The Board of the Maritime Association Port of New York & New Jersey will honor you at the 19th Annual International Maritime Hall of Fame, on May 9, 2012, in the Grand Hyatt New York at Park Avenue and Grand Central. We are pleased you have accepted.

In 1993, the Board of the Maritime Association of the Port of New York & New Jersey created the Awards to honor those maritime visionaries who, through excellence in their company, organization, or services, best exemplify the qualities of futuristic thinking that will guide our industry in the 21st Century. Annually since 1994, the Hall of Fame Ship's Lookout Statue Awards have been presented to these men and women.

You must be present at this prestigious event on the evening of May 9, 2012, at the Grand Hyatt New York.

There will be 350-380 CEOs and senior executives in attendance. Soon I will send you the timeline for photo and biographical information.

You will select a high-ranking colleague from outside your company or someone inside your company to give three minutes of remarks about you—how they know you, what accomplishments you have brought to the industry. You will have three minutes to accept, thank others, and give brief remarks about Dubai World.

We will send you a letter announcing your selection which you can use to invite your colleagues, or your staff can send us the list of persons you want invited, and we will send a special invitation with a reply directly to the person of your choice. We will send you 50 special invitations which you can send to your guests for your tables.

The mission of the Maritime Association is to promote the industry. We use the funds raised for that evening to continue our educational events and publications. Past honorees include Adolf Adrion, C.C. Tung, Niels W. Johnsen, Nicola Arena, J.W. Park, Li Shaode, President, China Shipping (Group) Company; Doug Tilden, Ports America.

We will be honored to salute you as a significant leader in the international maritime and transportation industry, and we look forward to celebrating your accomplishments on the evening of May 9. Thank you for your acceptance.

Regards,

Judy Rovins, Ph.D., Coordinator of International Maritime Hall of Fame Event, for

Edward J. Kelly, Executive Director, Maritime Association, Port of New York & New Jersey
