Subject: DAvid Blaine is sick!

David just called me and says he is stuck in bed sick. He doesnt want to get everyone else sick so wont be able to make it to lunch. He sounds awful. He says it usually takes him a day to recover and then he will be around for 2 weeks and really wants to see you. He also wants to meet the guy you told him about.

He says the best way to reach him is his cell. [REDACTED]
