Dr. Anatol Sikorski, Rector

Dr. Vasili Roudenok, Vice-Rector in charge of international programs

Belarusian State Medical University

Dear Dr. Sikorski and Dr. Roudenok,

By way of introduction, I am the Dean of the Columbia University College of Dental Medicine. One of your former students (Karyna Shuliak), who now lives in the United States, has expressed interest in completing her training in dentistry in the United States. Karyna withdrew from your school at the end of August 2010, having completed 4 of the 5 years of study required for the dental degree. Here is my question (which perhaps should best be addressed to the Dean of the Faculty of Dentistry Dr. Alexander Liskova): can Karyna take courses at Columbia to complete her 5th year, that would allow her to receive her dental degree from the Belarusian State Medical University?

Thank you in advance for a reply.

Ira Lamster
