Jeffrey,
Morrison is unable to fly, he has to be with GIV in prebuy until next week.
I will check to see if I can find replacement for him, I have a couple of good options.
My gut tells me to go with repair on gear and not go new, It would nice to get Boeing flying, but that's your call. I understand the attention the Boeing attracts. I'm trying to make a good decision cost wise, and meet your flying needs.
Your thoughts on when you would need to fly?
Thx
Larry

Jeffrey,
I just received a verbal offer from Paul Shrader, he's offering 1.7250M
He knows us, the helicopter and the way I maintain it.
Your thoughts?
