

Denver is slightly closer than Dallas. When I look at commercial flights from Denver to ABQ, flight time is about 1:15, whereas commercial flights from Dallas to ABQ is 1:45. (My only concern would be potential bad weather in Denver)

Some flights to Denver: all on Continental are all approx. 4:30 hours

Leave LGA at 7:50am arriving Denver 10:30am

Leave LGA at 10am arriving Denver at 12:35pm

Leave LGA at 3pm arriving Denver at 5:40pm

Some flights to Dallas: all on American Airlines approx. 4:15 hours

Leave LGA at 6:55am, arrives Dallas 10am

Leave LGA at 8:30am, arrives Dallas 11:50am

Leave Newark at 9:30am arrives Dallas 12:55pm

Leave LGA at 2:25pm arrives Dallas 5:30pm

There are even later flights for both destinations, but didn't think you would want to leave too late

There are several flights with different connections from NY to ABQ at all times of the day with an average travel time of 7 hours. There are connections through Denver, Chicago, Dallas.. Here are 3 choices of flights through Dallas(might be the safest connecting city in case of any bad weather elsewhere).

American leaves LGA at 8:30am with an 1hr 6min connection arriving ABQ at 1:45pm

American leaves Newark at 12:15pm with a 1hr connection arriving ABQ at 5pm

American leaves JFK at 3:55pm with a 55 min connection arriving ABQ at 8:45pm

Do you know what time of day you'd like to leave? Should I book any of these or look for different options?
