Dear Peter,

Thanks for the kind note. We have sustained our campaign to meet with any concerned constituencies within government and the media. Our objective is simply to provide the facts of our involvement. I think when people hear the facts, at a minimum, they understand we didn't create the problem and we acted in good faith in building this company many years ago. The fact our ownership ceased 5 years and two management teams ago also helps.

I appreciate your time and counsel on this matter.

I would be pleased to meet to discuss our current activity and future plans. Perhaps we can have lunch in the next few weeks? Please let me know what works for you.

Regards,

Joe

Dear Joe,

I was glad to meet you the other week and I wondered how everything had panned out. You seem successfully to have fallen out of the news for the time being.

I am interested in what Blackstone is doing and your future plans. Let's try and meet up again when you have a moment.

Best wishes

Peter
