Subject: B727 test flight

Jeffery,

Fog lifted enough to depart Lasham field to test fly the Boeing, aircraft is located at Stansted Airport outside London, Aero Toy stores New FBO. Only issue was auto pilot did not capture altitude hold feature. Lasham mechanics will travel to Stansted to repair.

I will arrive in NY tomorrow night via airlines at 8pm to oversee Gulfstream completion of maintenance. will update you on its progress, on schedule at this time.

thank you,
Larry
