FUNNY.....NOT ??
40 YEAR OLD !!!!

The prize package at the auction, a sleek black two-seat Duesenberg convertible (vintage 1931 or 1932â€”even the experts weren't sure) with red leather interior, spoke wheels and a rumble seat, went to Dieter Holterbosch, the 40-year-old Lowenbrau importer, for $10,000. A CBS television reporter asked Holterbosch what he planned to do with the car. "Will you drive it to work?" he asked. The classic-car buffs sighed in mock disgust. Said Holterbosch, "Why, no, I'll use it just on Sundays to pick up the papers."
