FYI

This is the email I received from Brice on the Bill Adams situation.

Taking this, the issues I personally witnessed last week, and for the fact that Bill, or anyone for that matter, can't answer simple questions on materials, production schedules, etc. tells me that you are being told what you want to hear and is the reason I made the decision that I did. Something has to be done to show you and I are serious when schedules are missed and there is no valid reason that there are consequences.

I have been on this job full time for 2 weeks and am learning how things work.

Have a good Thanksgiving and we can discuss in detail while on site. I arrive Monday and will be there all week.

Marc

Tom and I wish to release Bill Adams Wednesday this week
We know he has been a contributing factor in the situation with K&S
This project was on schedule when I left now it's turned into a cluster Fxxk
