All of the below is accurate. If JE holds the paper on 472 at whatever we end up trading it for I will pay him that amount when I sell it, the amount above that flows to me.

I think this is a strong offer from a US company and I need to respond today. The last hot buyer was over 4 months ago and if I recall their offer was 11.5 or 6.

This deal gets you money back and I am confident I can sell the C+

Please advise so I can respond, I do not think above 11.9m will work, I tried that already, the only play may be the trade, they are hard on 1.6m but we will see.

just spoke to George, he is traveling, and wanted me to relay this offer, He will confirm later tonight when he gets on his computer,.

Here is what the offer would be:

pay 11.9M for 750

George commission: 100K

trade-in of serial 472 1.6M

Net 10.2M

George thinks he can get them to 1.5M for serial number 472 then net would be 10.3M to you,.

George thinks it will take 2 months to sell the c+ for 1.7 to 1.8m please advise how to proceed, they would close by end of this month
