The list looks good, although there are a lot of people who are accustomed to being the center of attention (including me too, no doubt) . Moderation will be key. I don't know Dick Merkin or Michael Milken well enough to advise.

Paris with Woody sounds fun. I used to go to Elaine's with him and his friends Jean and Jaqui, although I doubt he remembers me. Thanks for setting up the 16th.

feedback on money participant list , event? , your meeting will be in the afternoon of the 16 at jpm headquarters, the party that night is of course optional , if you prefer for some very strange reason to return to l.a. , i never get insulted about people not wanting to go places. (I am here in paris with Woody Allen , our plans change by the minute)
