I don't want you to feel like you did anything wrong. I've had a great time with you. I made all my decisions fully aware of the risks.

I chose to behave more like a girlfriend than your 'buddy' over the past few months. Being reminded I'm not, makes me feel like a prostitute. That's not your fault.

The way things are now is just not sustainable. I see two roads

1. I ask for sleep and my girlfriend title. You get tushy. Nothing else changes.
2. We really act like just friends, without sleep, kissing or sex.
