Greetings Mr. Epstein,

I told Danny your directive. He and Jules will mark out the location first thing tomorrow, per your directive, and I will take and send photos for your review. Jules knows he is not to begin anything until you approve the photos.

Respectfully,

Daphne

we had staked the location.. it needs to be into the western edge of the beach so it can not be seen from anywhere on the island except when you are almost of top of it.. take more photos.
