Assuming current contracts pay as projected, we show payments can resume around the 9th of November.

I don't know where any promises are coming from. I have not made any to you directly other than factually stating when I am sending a check, and Seed's debt is to Adam Bly.
The UN and the Weather Channel both owe Seed money and both payments should come this week, and are late. When they pay another check will be released to Adam.

Hi Rich:

One payment is going out today for July. I prefer to send by mail if you don't mind but will put in the mail today. I generally avoid fed ex and messenger because I continue to be cost conscious.

As an fyi the check is made out to Adam and he endorsed it so you can deposit it. Seed's liability is with Adam so I need to continue to pay Adam.

As for August and September, I expect to be able send August next week pursuant to a payment I am waiting for from GE and September the following week based on a receivable from The Weather Channel.

I had originally anticipated both payments to be received by now, but our GE contact had a baby so her replacement is a bit slow and the Weather Channel invoice was dated later than originally expected hence will be paid later.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Vera
