Title: No news is good news....so here is the bad news

I am dealing with Frank Campbell Funeral home...notified the cemetery, her two country clubs for obits and met with her accountant and my brother. Gary is the executor of her will. He has power of attorney.

He had read the will the night before and I do think he was surprised, but not shocked, I got close to a million more (of my father's money) after he blew 10 million. He should have gotten nothing.

Gary is very methodical. The concerned sweetness and slowness he conducted the meeting with the accountant made me realize why my mother was so protective of him. The accountant who knew my mother for ten years said I reminded him of her and I want to puke. Gary brought his friend (since high school) who is an estate lawyer to help him out...for free.

Gary seems very intent on doing the right thing and going by the book and spitting everything equally and consulting me on all descions
