Humanity+ can be used to funnel $$ to you, so long as it's for pure research, not for a commercial venture (the research has to be on something in line with H+'s transhumanist mission, which is the case for any AGI work)

However, Humanity+ will eat 5% of the money for its role as a pass-through.... And there may be a delay of a couple weeks in getting the $$ from the Humanity+ account after it's wired, because I am not in the US to go to the Wells Fargo bank (where Humanity+ banks) and deal with it (and one can't do an international $$ transfer online from that account), so I need to get some Humanity+ colleague in the US to do it...

If going thru a university is a lot more troublesome or expensive for you, I'd be happy to do this for you through Humanity+ ;) ... let me know and I can send you the bank account information...
