Was great seeing you and the girls last weekend.

I will email Jean Luc today and see what he thinks I should do and will tell him about my schedule with Boris. I am suppose to get back to NY the Wednesday after we go to Brazil but just got offered a freelance styling job by a photographer friend. He's shooting a music video and wants me to style it, so I'll probably extend another day or two till the shoot is over.

Forgot to ask you, am I getting paid for the last month or no..? Should I bring it up to Jean Luc..? Don't want to bring up thing that I shouldn't with out asking you... How about in the future..? He didn't discuss anything like that with me and it's been over a month that I am here. I'll see what he says about scouting and booking or see what he suggests. I also want to see if he would connect me with the Miami agency with the artists' division as they represent stylists!

Thanks for every thing and have fun on the island!!

Sam
