Cathy,

I received an email from a friend regarding an article about Boss Man; I was very upset and hurt by the allegations in the article about him, especially when I found out who was behind the article "Mr. & Mrs. Miles Alexander".

I looked up to you & Miles in every way because of how Loyal & Professional you guys were to Boss Man, I know when he read that article about him he felt like he had butterflies in his stomach or a knife in his back because I did; What made you choose to entertain false accusations against the Man you once spoke so highly of and the same man who helped you, employed you and trusted you?

If you really believed everything you said in that article and you were that concerned about what was going on, why did it take you 8 years to say something or do something?

Every behavior is motivated by a belief & behind everything you do is a thought so I guess because the $Price was right$ you lost your belief & just wasn't thinking.

I never believed until now...
