Subject: Nana Windows

Jeffrey,

Carlos returned from vacation today and heard about the windows he told me that the screws are missing a square gaskets.

He contacted the vendor that did the windows to see if he can get them and he refused to deal with him until he gets paid the $ 1,000. Carlos feels the gaskets will be a better option than the caulk. Do you wish to see if he can somehow outsource these some where else?

Please advise

Thank you
