The difference to fly on Thursday, same flight, is a total of 59 pounds.

I am being told [REDACTED] herself MUST confirm she wants to change this flight! I could have Bella do it but they will ask Security Questions that Bella might not know the answers to. The customer service rep I spoke to at Expedia put all we discussed in [REDACTED] file so it will be easy to change her flight to Thursday.

Could [REDACTED] call Expedia to confirm she wishes to change her flight or have [REDACTED] call me and I will conference in Expedia.

Expedia: [REDACTED]

There is one non-stop flight from Paris to St. Petersburg on Air France Wed. March 28 #2252 Departs Paris (SDG) at 10:20 am arrives St. Petersburg (LED) at 3:35 pm for $920.
(unfortunately the Rossiya Airlines flight booked through Expedia is non refundable and we will lose the 221.90 pounds all together)

Due to the large discrepancy in price and non-refundable ticket, please confirm you wish me to Change [REDACTED] flight to the non-stop Air France flight on Wednesday.
