no I just inquired with Manuel and he told that Arran was on vacation at the time and that Brice told him to order the parts right away in order to move some trees around

Thank you

Rich received the check from FTC with the invoices and he knew nothing about it and he came to me and asked me about it and I didn't know anything about it either.

So I called Arran and asked him who approved it since there was no signature on the invoice and he told me he thinks Brice and Gary gave a verbal on it he wasn't sure. I emailed brice about it about an hour ago and he has not responded. We are holding the check here and not signing it
