Hi Jeffrey,

Tonight was indeed full, but had I been able to focus I would have found a way to make room--- but was at rehearsals all day (tomorrow we've got 3500 kids and teachers up at the United Palace Theatre for performance Icarus at the Edge of Time, and tonight I was doing a "duet"--physics and musics-- with violinist Joshua Bell), my apologies. Saturday sounds fun but I've again got rehearsal all day for my Saturday evening program on quantum mechanics (program will cover the science but audience will also here from the scientists, embodied by actors, who drive the quantum revolution). It should be a good program if you want to come. Let me know. It is full too, but I directly control a few tickets for that one.

Best,

Brian

Hi Jeffrey,

We've now sold bout 97% of the Festival's tickets, which is great. But I'm holding back some tickets for you to every program. So, let me know what you'd like to go to, and I'll have someone here work out the details. For easy reference, here are the programs:

All best,

Brian
