[REDACTED] pills were sent yesterday, she should receive them today. I have asked her to let me know when she gets them. The ones I have sent her are the [REDACTED] (the generic). I don't know if you would like to let her know that they are the exact same thing as the [REDACTED] (which were the ones of mine she was using before prescribed by Henry). She has 1 month's worth (they actually come in packs of 28 days). I have put reminders in my diary so that we will be able to send her repeats on time.
