Lesley and [REDACTED]:

Please see below regarding Sean Parker. I will be sure to find a convenient time in the next one or two days for Sean to meet Jeffrey.

I land in NY at 145pm today and shall call then to see what works for Jeffrey and I to get together.

Best wishes,

Ian

Ian – It looks like Sean may go to LA tonight to do some meetings and likely won't get to NY until late Monday/early Tuesday

Whitney,

I just wanted to check in on Sean's updated travel schedule, and plans for 1) meeting with me, 2) dinner or drinks or coffee with Jeffrey tomorrow, and 3) dinner following Isaacson event.

Any news would be most welcome, though I know these things change in real time.

Best wishes,

Ian

Ian: I am still trying to iron out Sean's NY schedule (he may need to do a quick LA trip). Potentially he will leave tomorrow and thus could make Sunday evening work as well as a monday meeting. He is planning to attend the book party assuming he does get back to NYC in time. Ill know more this afternoon!

Whitney,

I've just confirmed that I will be in NY on Sunday to Tuesday.

Can we find a time - Sunday would be fantastic, otherwise Monday or Tuesday - for a proper catchup with Sean. Probably best to allow 2 hours.

Also, Jeffrey Epstein wanted to see if Sean can do coffee, drinks or dinner Sunday (after he cancelled last time). I would join that as well. It would be at his house on 71st street.

Monday night Kevin Sheekey and I will host a dinner after the Walter Isaacson book party, which will have Brad Keywell (Groupon co-founder) together with Chamath and 2/3 other Internet folks who are coming to the event. I will send details in case Sean and [REDACTED] can come to that too.

Copying Rory.

Best wishes,

Ian

Are you in SF later in the week? Or NY next week?
