

To: Paul Tweed[@]
From: Jeffrey Epstein

andrews position is that [REDACTED] never said those things and our argument should be with the evening standard. he is saying she never said it. we cannot make threats. it should have the flavor that we understand her pressures. however, she has caused great damage. and we would request that she republish it. I believe there are more stories to come, so she will have an opportunity,