Subject: Fwd: Food/Spices for island?

Below was in email from Lesley:

'Brice and [REDACTED] Jeffrey just asked that you two coordinate on food...steaks...etc..'
When I received this email while in Long Beach I was with her and reminded her to do it. I think I am also at fault though as I should have rather just done it myself. I now have the details of the man we deal with at Lobels and the details of the steaks you like.

Hi Stephanie...Brice has pointed out that you will probably be cooking on the island...Jeffrey will be departing PB on Sunday for the island...did you need any food items purchased and taken down on Jeffrey's plane? Or perhaps if you are putting luggage on Jeffrey's plane for him to take down, you could purchase the food you wish to have taken?

Brice and [REDACTED] Jeffrey just asked that you two coordinate on food...steaks...etc...

Brice, [REDACTED] Steph, please confirm receipt of this message...

Thanks, Les
