My name is Peter Simon, I am currently working with Richard Saul Wurman to create the WWW.WWW Conference. Richard is currently traveling at the moment but would very much like to talk to you early next week. He also requested that I share some of our news with you.

Yesterday Richard had a great conversation with Geoffrey West about the conference, where they also talked about you. Geoffrey is very excited to participate.

As you probably know, we released the first 25 of 100 participants last Wednesday. www.thewwwconference.com/participants as well as an added paragraph on the new modality.

Since then we have added a few more participants, such as Mary Jordan, Uri Herscher and Bjarke Ingels. We have also added Mike McCue of Flipboard to our front page.
