FYI.

It is a very big job!

Again it is a mix of realities.

send me what she sends to you. It is getting amusing.

Well from today you could see that the team is a disorganized mess - they have no clue what to do or how to do it.

Melinda was very quiet? Bill was nice about urban stuff. 😊

Anyway - I have 2 options at the WB and I trying to pursue both of them in parallel. The first is the very big job and my interview is:

November 12

3:00 PM

Room - MC6-715

The second option is for the foundation to seconde me so that I would make a deal to basically work on some of the foundation issues and find links between us and the bank in a material way. It would mean a lot more flexibility for me – I could spend time here and there. [REDACTED] has offered to help me with the secondement. It might need some advocacy from above.

We shall see. Progress.

Great to see you – hope you were able to get some rest.
