Subject: Bell 407 update

Jeffrey,

I called to get a price for a Bell 407 which is 5 years newer than ours, I found on www.controller.com, it turned out to be Paul Schrader's helicopter,. its a 2004 Bell 407 with 850 hours, asking price is 2.295M
Our Bell 407 is a 1999 with 807 hours total time,. FYI,.
this is what Paul told me regarding our offer of 1.7M from the Stuart guys, for what its worth:

I don't know Larry, I am thinking he should consider the offer. To tell you the truth, I wouldn't give that right now. I am having a hard time with ours right now. Very little interest, it looks like people are just not spending right now.

Larry,

We are asking 2.295 for this. Call me if you have any questions. Have you sold your 407 yet?

Thanks,

Paul

I spoke to Brent Martin tonight, he asked me if we would consider meeting half way, at 1.750M for the Bell 407 ?
He needed to confirm with his buyer whether a counter offer will be made.

thank you,

Larry
