Title: Mother Siegal

She was more dead than alive last night at 6:00pm.

She thru herself off the bed at 11:00pm! The sensors went off. The nurses came running and were shocked. They put her back.

Then asked my brother to put her back on oxygen and increased her anti-anxiety medicine.

This is the second time she has done this. She was trying to go home.

What is an oxygen deprivation surge?

That's what the nuses called it. She is reponsive now.

It's unbelievable.
