

On the highway between Ocho Rios and Montego Bay, Jamaica, the humble barbecue stand advertises the name of "Texan's Cool Spot." It was here that the Jamaican Government agent, Barrington Shand (right) claimed that Kallen Monigold had settled and hidden from the dangers that lurked behind him in Smith County. Whether true or not, such tales keep alive the mystery of Kallen Monigold's fate.

Patricia Donahlik was Kallen Monigold's girl and the object of Paul Woodward's jealousy and anger. In Austin, Texas, Woodward shot the young beauty to death and thus became a prime suspect in the mysterious disappearance of Monigold.

Kallen Monigold in happier days in Smith County.

The "Rock House" where Matthews and Ramsey hid following the attack upon their lives.

Steve McGill and Cherie Paro in the days shortly before they met the man they were to know as Jim Myers. The relationship formed with the narc team of Matthews and Ramsey would lead to the darkest days of their young lives as evidenced by the official mug shot of Cherie on the day she was booked into the Smith County jail.

