PREFACE

THIS Supplement to my volume of translations of the Pyramid Texts contains those Utterances preserved in Jéquier's publications Le monument funéraire de Pepi II, hereinafter cited as JP II; Les pyramides des reines Neit et Apouit (Nt); and La pyramide d'Aba (Aba) which in Sethe's edition of the Pyramid Texts are damaged too badly to be adequately completed in footnotes to the translations, and also other Utterances which were not included in Sethe's publication because in 1910 they had not yet been discovered. It cannot be too strongly stressed, however, that it has not been my purpose to provide an edition with full apparatus criticus, but only to show the foundation on which I have based my translation so that scholars can judge the latter, at the same time keeping the bulk of this volume, and therefore the cost, down to the minimum. It will be noticed, therefore, that where there is more than one new source for a text, with but two exceptions (Utt. 502 and 733) I have not set out the texts in parallel, but have copied only the more complete version (usually Nt), so far as possible completing lacunae with the help of the alternative texts, any significant variants being shown in textual notes. This procedure, though perhaps unorthodox, is the less unsatisfactory in that JP II is often so imperfect that copies of some Utterances extant in both JP II and Nt would, if set out in full, consist largely of blanks so far as JP II is concerned; the texts from Aba are later in date than the others, and are not strictly in accord with the original canon, so that they have been utilized only when all other sources fail. Nor have I devoted space to additional fragments which are too piecemeal to yield an intelligible sense; these will be best dealt with in a critical re-edition of the whole of the Pyramid Texts which I am glad to learn is in course of preparation by Professor Leclant. The present copies have been made solely as a practical convenience.

In the pages of hieroglyphic text which follow, square brackets without cross-hatching indicate that the text has been completed from a parallel text of the same Utterance in Sethe or Jéquier; restorations with cross-hatching are from a source of similar but not identical content.

Handwritten text: Handwritten symbols and characters, possibly a signature or code.

52220a

Handwritten musical notation on a single staff, featuring various rhythmic values and accidentals. The notation includes a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature (C). The melody consists of several measures, with notes and rests written in a cursive, handwritten style. The notation is somewhat difficult to read due to the handwriting and the presence of some scribbles.
