TAKING CONTROL OF A GROUP, ORGANIZATION, SOCIETY, ETC., THROUGH OCCULT MANIPULATION

The information I am about to impart to you has rarely been in print. In fact the only time I can recall seeing it in print was in a privately circulated correspondence course costing $500 – and that was 40 years ago!

Value what you are about to learn. It may seem like fiction; and in point of fact I would never discuss it with anyone outside these pages. Even some occultists would say it was impossible to influence a group of people, let alone an entire organization or even a government! There are occultists and there are occultists. The information I am about to give, whilst rare and little discussed, is not new but very ancient indeed. Certainly the magician-priests of ancient times had access to it and applied it (my study of ancient sacred texts revealed that it was particularly true of the Sumerians and Egyptians). Occultists who disbelieve may do so because of the effort involved or because of its chaotic nature, for the reasoning goes that if mere individuals can influence entire organizations then chaos would be the result; society wouldn't be able to function. But this is a false rationale and also unrealistic. Organizations of every kind are always subject to some kind of outside influence or threat, even governments. If they disintegrate because of external pressure then they deserve it. Religious fanatics and terrorists would not exploit such occult information because they believe it 'the work of the Devil': in any event they prefer tyranny, death and destruction, and psychologically the individual is disadvantaged by the mere thought of just himself up against so formidable an opposition.

But it isn't formidable, it is only the thought of it that is. Conventional thinking has it that the individual can only influence his own circumstances – and that's not always certain – and that he has no way of influencing two or more people. The larger the number of people, the more unattainable the goal of influencing them, so goes the thinking.

Occultists, like the rest of us, are limited by their thoughts and beliefs. Most of the occultists I know are not rich, and some are sick and infirm. They will boast about having attained such and such 'a degree' in a prestigious lodge of esoteric teaching, and they may be very learned and knowledgeable; and some might have even written books. Then there are those occultists who are successful, rich and healthy; but these are indeed in the minority.

The information here will never pose any threat to society or organizations in general for hardly anyone believes. Which is a good thing. The infamous Satanist Anton La Vey would always say how good it was when others didn't believe: it always made his work so much easier!

Whatever occultists may believe, the whole system of belief in things unseen rests on the premise that there are different levels – or 'planes' – of existence which all co-exist together.

To describe this concept at its most basic level I could say that there is the seen, visible, physical universe – 'plane No.1' – and the invisible, unseen universe – 'plane No.2'. This is an extreme simplification, but this booklet is not intended to be a manual of occultism. I am writing here to give you hard, practical, usable information in order to achieve a practical end result.

What some were ready to pay hundreds of dollars for, you are going to receive complete in a short, concise manner in these pages, and ready immediately to use.

The information here is in fact priceless. Put it into practice and you will see why!

So we have 'plane No.1' – the physical, what we see and touch, and 'plane No.2' – what we cannot see and touch. Now understand this: one plane cannot do without the other!

But how can we know that the invisible plane exists? Because all existence is dualistic!

You can't have black without white, you can't have wealth without poverty, you can't have motion without stillness, and you can't have light without day. There can be no harmony without discord, no silence without noise, no laughter without tears, no love without hate and no fulfilment without disappointment.

To suggest that the physical is all that exists is to deny the duality we know exists elsewhere!

Here is what the magicians of old believe – and what many of my readers may also recognize – and that is that the two planes interact and influence one another!

This is the idea – or to be precise, law – on which all magick rests!

Put another way: what happens in the invisible influences the visible, and vice versa! (Seasoned occultists will recognize the simplicity of my argument, for they will know that the invisible world, or plane, in truth consists of many worlds and planes within itself, each influencing the other!)

Now understand this. What you do in this world has an effect on the other. Vice versa!

I cannot 'prove' this to you: you should actually find it self-evident!

You bought this booklet to learn one thing: how to secretly influence any group of people: without their knowledge or even an awareness of your existence, if you are unknown to them. You want them to do your bidding!

Now this is not to do 'your bidding' in any frivolous sense, i.e. you get them to do one thing one day, another thing the next. That would be impossible! No, your purpose is to effect a change or to effect a certain course of action. You want them to pursue a different policy, or change their attitude towards you, to favour you instead of oppose.

I am going to take you through the various stages of this process, step-by-step. I am going to try and explain it as simply as possible, not because the reader is dim, but because I want there to be no misunderstanding. Done correctly, these instructions are DYNAMITE!

You will enjoy unimaginable secret power!

That the individual is 'powerless' is a lie, but is made a truth because everybody believes it! You are going to learn differently!

TIMING

Understand timing. It can often mean the difference between success and failure. So much of history is about timing. Wrong timing usually means failure; good usually means success.

All life is governed by rhythms and cycles, and the trick is to find the good ones and go with them. The clearest example, from an occult view, is celestial. Watch in particular the lunar cycles. The moon not only influences tidal waves here on earth, but also human behaviour. Human behaviour is more likely to be affected at Full Moon.

I am not going to bog down inexperienced readers with zodiacal jargon. What I ask of the inexperienced – for his or her own sake – is the will to see these instructions through. Knowledge may not make you succeed, but the will, the determination, the perseverance makes the difference.

More on the moon. When you seek to expand or get something to grow, you should concentrate your occult work during the time of the waxing moon, when it itself is 'expanding' and 'growing', that is, progressing from New to Full. But when you want something to contract, to pull back, to back off or go away then you work with the waning moon; that is when it has passed Full and is getting smaller every night. A good astrology magazine or almanac will explain the current year's moon cycles. Otherwise you make your own observations. Of course the moon is often obscured by cloud, particularly in gloomy Britain! When you see that it is banana-shaped, light on its right side, then you know it is growing and expanding. Full moon lasts just one night and after that it wanes – declines – for some 13 or 14 days. When it is gone completely, 'the dark of the moon', and cannot be seen at all, no matter how clear the sky, then occult work should be avoided.

Knowledge of the stars can be very useful, for every group and organization is influenced by its own zodiacal sign and planet. For example, the English cities of Oldham, Leicester and Birmingham are ruled by Aries, which is something useful to know if you are seeking to influence civic authorities. According to astrological theory, persons born under Aries should feel 'at home' living in those particular places. I will now list other places and groups influenced by Aries. Naples, Marseilles; the countries of Israel, Germany, Denmark, Iceland and Syria. Firefighters and all those connected with fire. Diamond cutters. Garages, their owners and employees. Manufacturers in general. Gangsters, hoodlums. Metal workers, metallurgical engineers. Nudists, nudist camps. Opticians and optometrists. Pioneers. Physical therapists. Soldiers. Surgeons. Thermodynamists. Welders; tool designers and workers.

If you wish to influence any of these then you should take heed of Aries' fortunes.

Taurus rules the following. Actors, actresses. Art dealers; art shops; artists of all kind. The countries of Australia, Cyprus, Holland and Ireland. Banks and bankers. Financiers. Money lenders. Cabinet makers. Cashiers. Confectioners. Musicians, singers. Jewellers. The cities of Palermo, St Louis and Dublin.

Gemini governs the following. Advertising agencies. Neighbours. Gossipers in general. Book-keepers. Broadcasters. The countries of Belgium and Wales. The cities of London, Plymouth, Wolverhampton, Melbourne and San Francisco. Canvassers. Officer workers. Publishers in general. Editors. Book critics. All those engaged in the gathering and dissemination of information. Libraries. Lecturers. Graphologists. Petrol station owners and employees. Novelists. The Post Office, managers and staff. Railways, managers and staff. Repairmen in general. Schools and all those who work in them. Stock brokers; those who speculate in the stock market. Telephone companies, management and staff. Translators. Travel agents. Lorry drivers. Writers in general.

Cancer rules the following. Bakers and bakeries. Boat manufacturers. Collectors and collecting in general. One's family. Gardeners. Retail grocers. Hotels, hoteliers; their staff. Laundries, owners and employees. The country of Scotland. The cities of Manchester, York, Stockholm, Amsterdam, Berne, Istanbul, Venice, Tunis. Melon growers and sellers. Mushroom growers and sellers. Obstetricians. Oceanographers. Plumbers. Estate agents. Restaurants, their owners and staff. Sailors and seamen in general. Shepherds; sheep workers. Washing machine companies and their employees. Women's organizations in general.

Leo governs the following. Entertainers in general. Theatre and cinema owners. Film production companies. Government officials. Farmers. Politicians in general. The countries of France and Italy. Blackpool, Bath, Portsmouth. Rome, Chicago, Philadelphia, Damascus, Bombay.

Virgo is the ruler of the following. Accountants. Mathematicians. Bookkeepers. The civil service; civil servants. Craftsmen in general. Dieticians. Osteopaths. Psychiatrists. Scientists in general. Shopkeepers. Tailors. Inspectors in general. The countries of Switzerland and Turkey. The cities of Cheltenham and Reading. Baghdad, Basle, Paris, Lyon, Jerusalem, Los Angeles, Boston (US).

Libra rules the following. Beauty parlours. Beauticians. Cosmeticians. Boutiques. Women's clothes manufacturers. Dressmakers. Milliners. Wig-makers. Confectioners. Musicians and places of entertainment. Partnerships in general. Trade unions. The countries of Argentina and Japan. Leeds, Copenhagen, Lisbon, Antwerp, Vienna.

Scorpio governs the following. Butchers. Undertakers. Cemetery associations. Dentists. Detectives. Tax collecting agencies. The countries of Monaco and Algeria, Norway, Korea. The cities and towns of Liverpool, Dover, Hull, Worthing, Stockport. Ghent, Milwaukee, Baltimore, Washington D.C.

Sagittarius rules the following. Everyone in the legal profession, from judges downwards. Church associations. Priests; the clergy. Theologians. Publishers specializing in law, religion, philosophy. Educational institutions. Schools of higher learning. Philosophers. Professors. Huntsmen. Everyone connected with horses. The countries of Spain, Chile, Czechoslovakia, Hungary. Sheffield, Sunderland, Cologne, Toronto.

Capricorn rules the following. Architects. Chamber of Commerce. Business people in general. Industrial engineers; civil engineers. Those concerned with making and repairing watches and clocks. Jailers. Land owners; landlords. Masons. Old people in general. Capricorn governs the city of Brussels and the countries of Bulgaria, Albania, Lithuania, Greece, Afghanistan and Mexico.

Aquarius rules the following. Airport authorities. Pilots, and everyone to do with flying. Car manufacturers, dealers and mechanics. Chiropractors. Places of politics such as the British Houses of Parliament and the American House of Representatives. Electricians, electrical engineers, electro-platers. Everything to do with motorcycling. Radio manufacturers and dealers. Radio technicians. Sweden, Russia. Brighton, Hamburg.

Pisces rules the following. Cheaters, charlatans; criminals in general. Prison inmates and prison guards. Places of confinement or detention. Charities. Monasteries and monks. Chiropodists. Spiritualists. Portugal. The English towns and counties of Bournemouth, Grimsby, Lancaster, King's Lynn and Preston. Oil well producers and their employees. Photographers. Podiatrists. Religious fanatics. Secret societies in general. Anything to do with swimming pools.

Now, each of the signs has its own ruling planet which has a strong effect on them. So when you study the horoscope of the sign of the group of people or organization you seek to sway, take special note of any comment about the ruling planet. Jupiter rules Sagittarius and to a lesser extent, Pisces. Mars rules Scorpio; Mercury rules Gemini and Virgo; Uranus rules Aquarius; Venus rules Taurus and Leo; Pluto rules Scorpio; and Saturn rules Capricorn. The Moon is the ruler of Cancer and the Sun of Leo.

Mercury is often in what astrologers call 'retrograde' motion, which is never good, for this planet governs everything to do with communication. So 'retrograde' specifically means poor communications; people misunderstanding one another, mail being delayed or lost, problems with phones, and so on. And because Mercury rules Gemini and Virgo, those under these signs' influences are more affected than others.

Study the zodiacal and planetary forecasts in the publications devoted to these things and not in the silly daily horoscope published in the tabloid press.

I don't know what your specific plan or aim is. I'm only giving you the 'know how' of getting it into action. The point of watching celestial rhythms is to get them on your side. This doesn't necessarily mean a negative planetary aspect is bad for you. For example, for all I know, you may wish to disrupt a group, so a retrograde Mercury, coupled with a waning moon would be a distinct advantage. If you wish to influence a Taurean group and the Taurus horoscope suggests a future completely at odds with your purpose, then it may be a good idea to wait until a more favourable horoscope appears.

You can always ignore the celestial factor, but you may just be making things harder for yourself. I must confess to having been guilty of this myself, always being in such a hurry to get a result. Ultimately the most important factor in any occult work is the occultist's commitment to his purpose. Patience and determination are more important than anything else.

I personally only hesitate to act when it is clear that the heavenly influences are hopelessly inappropriate. Otherwise I do not wait for 'the right time' for I may have to wait longer and meanwhile lose the impetus. But I have always found, that when striving to create or build something, working during the waning moon always pays off. And the lunar cycles are the easiest to keep tabs on.

INSTRUCTIONS

Now let's get down to the actual business of occult manipulation. First understand that your work consists of intent and imagination. By concentrating your intent and your imagination you create an astral reality, that is, you create something in the unseen world or inner plane. WHAT YOU MENTALLY PROJECT TAKES ON AN INDEPENDENT EXISTENCE THERE.

Everything depends on what goes on in your head. What you create in your head is all that matters. Everything that I now explain may seem childish, but in point of fact this is serious occult work which culminates in serious tangible results. So how on earth do you actually influence, let alone 'take control', of a group or organization?

We're at Step One. You know what you want to do, but how can you possibly do it? That now changes with your first step of positive action. I want you to think hard about this group of people, association, government department or whatever else it may be. You know what it looks like physically: now think about its existence on the inner plane, in the astral world. But we are going to move this idea further. You are going to make it look the way you want it to look on the inner plane. YOU CAN CONTROL ITS FORM ON THE INNER PLANE.

HERE'S THE KEY: THINK OF AN INDIVIDUAL – PURELY OF YOUR CREATION – WHICH EMBODIES THE WHOLE GROUP.

This must be your own original creation. You dream up a character that represents the totality of the group in your mind.

If you find it hard to imagine a person, then imagine an animal or a thing. It doesn't matter what it is, so long as it represents to you the embodiment of the group.

MAKE YOUR CREATION AS VIVID AND AS REAL AS YOU CAN IN YOUR IMAGINATION.

You have done enough for now. Leave it alone for a few hours or return to it tomorrow when you will think hard about it again, embellishing its appearance.

Make it as real as possible, even though it exists only in your head. Its power lies in the fact that you have created it and it embodies what you seek to control. Existing in your head, it lives also in the astral dimension. A particularly advanced occult-sensitive would be able to actually clairvoyantly see this entity, even though he or she may not actually know where it's from! Members of the group you seek to sway may actually see the entity in their dreams, without any idea, of course, where it's from!

What you have mentally created can appear in anyone else's unconscious world, because the unconscious accesses all astral images!

ALREADY THE GROUP YOU SEEK TO INFLUENCE IS LOSING ITS AUTONOMY TO YOU!

And it is about to lose much more!

You must continue to believe absolutely that your creation is indeed the group or organization you seek to control.

If you cannot believe completely absolutely then you will be wasting your time. If it seems hard at first then you must persist. But if after a week you still feel foolish then abandon it. Perhaps you could come back to it another time when you are in a different frame of mind.

Each day intensify the image, this occult reality. In the invisible world the astral form of the group is losing its grip as the form you have given it becomes stronger. And as I explained earlier, what happens in the unseen dimensions automatically follows in the seen.

Now for Step Two. You will have spent a week or two intensifying your creation.

Now you give it instructions on what you want of it. You talk to it as if you were talking to the group itself.

You don't ask, you don't request: you TELL it what you expect.

THERE MUST NOW BE NO DOUBT IN YOUR MIND THAT YOUR CREATION DOES NOT MERELY REPRESENT ONE GROUP BUT IS ONE GROUP ITSELF. You have taken control of the Group Soul.

Any doubt on your part and your project will fail! Believe and persist!

Step Three. Suddenly you may feel resistance from your creation. IT NOW HAS A 'MIND' OF ITS OWN!

If you find this scary, then you may as well stop what you're doing. Your creation will evaporate and that will be the end of it. But if you persist, you will almost certainly get a physical result, without any harm to yourself.

That you may feel such resistance is an excellent sign, for it demonstrates that there is a definite astral energy at work.

The resistance demonstrates that subconsciously the group or its leader(s) knows it is being manipulated and weakened.

THE PHYSICAL RESULT YOU SEEK IS COMING CLOSER!

It is at this juncture you realize the obvious: the stronger the group, or those leading it, the harder the task. A weak group is obviously easier to manipulate – and will put up little or no resistance.

When I have felt resistance I have regarded it as an excellent development. It means my plan is working, and I am resolved to see it through.

There now follows a test of wills. But you are in control whilst the group doesn't know what's going on.

It goes without saying that the group you are targeting should never be of an occult or mystic nature, because such a group, by its very nature, would know what was going on and would turn your creation back on you, with unpleasant results.

NEVER TARGET ANY SUCH GROUP, WITCH'S COVEN, ETC. Churches and the conventionally religious don't count, for they are fools and easily targeted.

Step Four. You might feel stuck. The resistance is strong. You just can't proceed. You have to decide at this moment whether to continue. No harm will befall you if you persist, but you will have to be totally committed, otherwise you will end up with no result.

What you do now is threaten your creation with incarceration. Tell it that if it doesn't submit you will bind it in chains and have it locked away.

There is a dilemma here, and you will have to follow your intuition on what to do. I can give you the options. Fierce resistance means the group might split or disband, not because it is weak but because its strong members are reacting to new pressures. These members may go off and start other groups, which may defeat your purpose. It might be wise to take stock, review the horoscope, and return to your project a few weeks later when there may be less resistance.

Or you can force the issue by chaining and imprisoning your creation. You have to make this as vivid as possible in your imagination. Once chained, you may sense a lessening of resistance in which case repeat your instructions to it. Repeat your instructions day after day.

Whether you chain it or not, what you have meanwhile accomplished is an astral reality, a reality which you control, which will now manifest physically. The group is going to take a different direction, drop or adopt a policy in accordance with your wish.

It will seem strange when it happens. It will seem so unreal. And you cannot tell another living soul that this development is the result of something in your imagination. What you might actually think is that the development would have happened anyway; that it is all just coincidence and nothing to do with your occult work.

Perish the thought. Entertain it for more than a second and you are finished as an occultist. After all, if you failed you would call the occult nonsense. You can't have it both ways.

If it appears to be failing then redouble your efforts. The bigger and more intransigent the target the tougher the task. But don't consider failure: just keep at it, for something has to give and as you are the one in control then it is inevitable that it is the group that will have to give.

With this priceless occult information – which on paper looks simple enough, but will test your mettle once you attempt it – you can get your way throughout life. You can pave the way for promotion and elevation. You can remove obstacles to your happiness and peace of mind. You can eliminate rivals and weaken competitors. On the other hand, you might blow it all.

I have given what you need to know, the rest is up to you.
