YOU CAN GET WHAT YOU WANT !

In this course I am going to show you how virtually any desire you have may be realised. I do not intend to waffle on about what you can find in hundreds of other books in the occult and self-help field. The occult and psychological laws governing goal achievement are basic and uncomplicated. I do not know how they work -- I only know that they do work, and that almost anything can be achieved by using them.

Before we get down to the "nitty gritty" of the matter I feel that a few things can first be said about what can and can't be achieved with mind visualisations.

If up until now you have had only poor results from using the occult it is most likely due to psychological factors within yourself. Most folk I know get miserable results from occult visualisation and as a result become cynical and disillusioned. But then I know very few people who can bother to do it right in the first place!

To get good, fast results from the occult, especially if you want material things, you must WORK at it. You have got to do the job right. It is completely up to you -- if you really want what you desire then you must "work" at it. This is essential in the occult as it is in everything else.

What I wish to show you in this course is that you can get what you desire! Nothing can be denied to you when you use the occult, providing your desires are sound and legitimate. If you have tried before without success then we must find out WHY! We must remove cynicism and disappointment and put in their place hard, tangible happy RESULTS! And the way to get results is to mean business -- no half-hearted measures will do!

D-E-S-I-R-E -- STEP NO. 1 FOR GETTING WHAT YOU WANT!

There are several, extremely important, rules to be adhered to for getting material things through the occult. Most people ignore at least one of these rules, if not all of them. We shall explore these rules and discover whether or not you have been keeping them. The odds are that you haven't, but together we can change that!

Let's take a look at perhaps the most important rule, a rule so obvious and yet so misunderstood! It is the rule, or should I say "law", of DESIRE. You literally must burn with desire for the thing you want! There is no use just wishing or dreaming about it. You must really want it -- it must be life or death for you; results won't come otherwise!

If you desire something badly you are already half way to getting it, if not two thirds of the way!! Desire is the magic force that triggers the subconscious to produce results. Now let's be a little more specific. If you want, say, a new suite of furniture for your home, but the cost of buying same is presently entirely beyond your reach. If you cannot afford it then there is simply no way in which you are going to get it. That is unless you really want it. If you really want it that is different, and by virtue of this the new suite of furniture is already en route for your home! Work on your desire more, and get yourself really heated up about it, and sooner rather than later the subconscious will HAVE to do something about it! Burning desire always compels the subconscious mind to spring into action, and this is what you are after! Once your subconscious gets stirred up things begin happening!

But to insure that they happen you must understand and apply a few other rules! Desire is where you start -- it is the all important beginning in accomplishing your goal.

DYNAMIC VISUALISATION -- SECOND STEP TO ATTAINING YOUR HEART'S DESIRE!

Once you get heated up with desire for the goal you wish to achieve you then start VISUALISING THAT YOU ALREADY HAVE ACHIEVED IT! For visualisation you must set aside twenty minutes a day -- ten minutes in the morning and ten at night, preferably when you are in bed just before you go to sleep. If you come up with the excuse that it isn't "convenient" or a bit awkward then you don't deserve to get what you're after, and what's more, you WON'T get it! You obviously can't want it badly enough if you cannot be bothered to put up with a little inconvenience in finding a mere twenty minutes a day to help you get what you desire.

Much has been written about the subject of visualisation, but the workings of this technique is simplicity itself to perform. Most people fail to get results from visualisation simply because they do not do it right! It is sheer mental laziness and lack of discipline which is the cause of this! Is this where you go wrong? The chances are it is, if you are honest enough to admit it! There is nothing to visualisation, but you must do it right!

For visualisation you first relax mind and body. You can do this anywhere -- I have done this even in a crowded tube train without bother, and I possess no special gifts! Relax your body. Make sure your legs are not tense, that your fists are relaxed and your face unfrowned. Feel your body become limp and without feeling. Close your eyes as you relax and keep them closed for the duration of the ten minutes you will give for visualisation. Next, you think happy and pleasant thoughts -- the countryside in summer, children playing, a beautiful sunset, or some other such pleasing, relaxing thought. You need only do a minute or two of this. Then you go straight into the actual process of VISUALISING WHAT YOU WANT. If it is a new suite of furniture you seek visualise it as already being in your home, in the exact spot you wish it to be. It is absolutely vital to believe in your mind for these few minutes that you already have the object of your desires within your possession. This state of belief works miracles. Never, ever fail to do this in your visualisations. If it is a new car you want then see it as already being parked outside your home. If you desire a particular person of the opposite sex to be in your life you must see this person as already being with you and enjoying your company.

DESIRING SOMEONE OF THE OPPOSITE SEX !

The foregoing is a very important point if the object of your desire is a particular person. If, for example you are a man desiring a woman who is unattainable to you, you must see this woman in your imagination as enjoying your company and WANTING your company. This last bit is vital. You must see her wanting YOU -- not the other way round! Ophiel, celebrated teacher of the Occult, gives some very sound advice on this point in his work "SEALED LESSONS ON OCCULT POWER" (in manuscript form only -- available from the publishers of this book for £3.95 at time of writing), and if you want some really worthwhile information on this matter, and the occult significance behind it, I cannot recommend this work higher. One thing must be understood about wanting someone of the opposite sex. The desire must be totally moral. No monkey business such as desiring someone else's spouse, etc. Visualise that sort of thing and you will come unstuck fast.

So, whilst visualising, it is imperative that you believe with all your heart that what you desire is already yours. See it, feel it in your thoughts.

REVIEWING WHAT WE'VE LEARNT SO FAR!

Let's review the situation to date. We have seen how desire is so vitally important, and that it must be BURNING desire! No half-hearted, watery wishing will do. The subconscious only responds to powerful, emotional demands. Nothing less!

So you really want the thing you are after -- it is a "life and death" situation that you must have it. Next you visualise this thing as already in your possession, and you set aside ten minutes every morning and night for this purpose. If you have time to fit in another ten minutes visualising half way through your day at, say, after lunch this is even better still. You can never do too much visualising! But at all costs make sure you get in your twenty minutes worth per day. And what next, you ask? Next comes the toughest part -- PERSISTENCE!

HOW TO ENSURE SUCCESS -- NO MATTER HOW REMOTE IT MAY SEEM!

Desiring and visualising are easy, and if they are not easy to you now they soon will be. But persistence is something else. It is where most people fall down. And this is where your real mettle is tested.

Persistence is the great test of CHARACTER, a quality too many of us lack! Very few people possess real character, and this probably includes you, dear reader. It is always overwhelmingly tempting to give up when things start getting hard. 90% of us succumb to this temptation and hence get very little worthwhile in life. Most of the good things in life have to be fought for, and something that has been fought for tastes very sweet when once received.

I mention the subject of persistence because the odds are that you may not get what you want first time in spite of some very good visualising. You may wait only days -- even hours, as has been known -- to receive the object of your desires. Much depends on the nature of your goal, and upon the intensity of your desire for same. Obviously the stronger your desiring and visualisations are the bigger your chances for quick success become. But all too many times there are exceptions to this rule, and this is where your ability to "keep on keeping on" is put to the test.

"KARMA" IS CREATED MOSTLY IN THIS LIFE!

If you are still without results after, say, a month then you have no choice but to take a brutally frank inventory of the situation. Don't blame mind power or the occult by saying "it doesn't work". It is a fact that almost all failure in life is self-induced, and NOT due to external causes! The Occult, like anything else, doesn't operate for those who withhold intelligent application and persistence!

BE REALISTIC !

So don't blame visualisation, this course, or anything else! BLAME YOURSELF! That's if you are man to do so!

So you ask yourself why am I not getting results -- where am I going wrong? My goal: is it realistic, legitimate? Only you can answer this!

And what is a "realistic, legitimate" goal? You are the final judge of this. If you are in poverty and want a big, new shiny expensive car then in no way can this be described as a "legitimate goal" -- that is pure STUPIDITY! One's objective in such circumstances should, of course, be more sensible, i.e. better job, increased income, etc.

Or you may want to "become rich" when there is nothing about your present situation that suggests you stand a chance in hell of accomplishing such an objective. This type of goal is far too vague anyway. The subconscious mind responds much better to well defined, definite objectives. It is only reasonable to think of "becoming a millionaire" when one is already a fair way up the financial ladder.

Help your subconscious mind by not asking it to perform unrealistic tasks for you. Your goal has to be sound and sensible.

But don't be afraid to aim high if your objective is really important and necessary to you. Let's take an extreme example. You may be a man in love with a woman who doesn't even know you. You pass her every day on the street, or see her on the bus or train and your heart skips a beat every time your eye catches her. She doesn't even notice you, to her you simply do not exist. You feel miserable, dejected. The one thing you want more than anything in the world is to have her in your arms, but the chances of this are about as likely as winning half a million on the pools. But it is not unrealistic to want her to know you and fall in love with you! If you feel in your heart that you are right for her then there is no reason in the world why she shouldn't be yours ... unless, of course, she is already "hitched". That is something you may have to learn the hard way. Although this is an extreme situation it is not an impossible, or unrealistic one. With enough faith and persistence a "miracle" will happen and your dreams fulfilled.

IF YOU DON'T GET RESULTS

If your efforts are still without fruition you should also ask yourself one or two other things. Is my level of desire strong enough -- have I really been wanting this thing bad enough?

Remember it is not enough to merely "wish" for something -- you've got to DESIRE it with your whole being! The subconscious mind does not respond to poor, low key wishy washy emotions!

Failure to get results is invariably due to poor visualising, or visualising haphazardly. You must see the object of your desires already in your possession. You must believe with all your heart that you ALREADY have it. This is not difficult; it is the easiest thing in the world if your desire is genuine. If results fail to materialise it will be for any one of the reasons stated. But what if you are doing everything correctly -- your goal is realistic, your desire is high, your visualisation crystal clear and intense, and still nothing happens? The answer is that you "KEEP ON KEEPING ON"! Whatever you do DON'T GIVE UP! Believe you will be successful no matter how long it takes. Persistence -- or lack of it -- is the single greatest cause of failure. People get discouraged and quit when often if they had only stuck with it just for an extra few days success would have appeared. You can relate it to the oil pioneers of the past who would put everything they've got into drilling a potential oil field, then get discouraged when success eluded them and then give up. Later someone else comes along, drills the same land, goes further than the previous man, and hits a fabulous bounty -- often only yards away from where the previous man gave up!

Persistence is the golden key to success. Forget what anyone else says. Talent, looks, money, influence don't mean a light unless if you have the grit to keep persevering when things look bleak. The reward for persistence is untold glory if your goal is a big one, and simple delight if your goal isn't so big.

I know of one man who persisted for FIVE YEARS to achieve his goal of running his own mail order business from home. He desired it, visualised it, but to no avail. He started out thinking he would have it all in the bag within a matter of months. Six months passed and he had made no progress at all. Starting a home mail order business wasn't as simple as he thought it would be. A year passed and all his savings were gone -- he invested every penny he had in new products which flopped one after another. Not the quitting kind he read books on mind power and self-motivation to inspire him to carry on, and he had to carry on another four years before making just £1 profit. One book in particular -- Napoleon Hill's "Think and Grow Rich" (available from the publishers of this book at £4.95) impressed him greatly for its great stress on the value of persistence. Today this man has been well rewarded for his spirit of "keep on keeping on": his business now grosses £200,000 a year and he still runs it from the comforts of home -- a dream really come true.

Of course this is an extreme example. Such dogged persistence will not be necessary for the attainment of most goals. But if your goal is an ambitious one you must learn the persistence habit - you will never succeed without it!

MASTER YOUR THOUGHTS!

Another source of failure is WORRY. ELIMINATE WORRY FROM YOUR THINKING! Don't waste precious mental energy by wondering and worrying whether it's all going to work. Utterly banish doubts and anxiety from your mind!

I know only too well that this is very easy to say. If you want something desperately it is difficult not to constantly think about it. Many books say that one should forget everything and let the subconscious mind be allowed to grant your instructions without hindrance. If you can forget everything in between your two to three daily visualisations that is excellent. This is obviously easier to do if the thing you want isn't of pressing urgency.

POSITIVE THINKING -- DYNAMIC ANTIDOTE TO WORRY!

If you find it impossible not to think about your goal then learn to think about it positively. To dwell negatively on it will certainly not help you one little bit. I am forever amazed by the amount of people who read "positive thinking" books and yet remain so terribly negative in their attitudes. Are you of these people? Do you just read such books and fail to practise the philosophy they teach? Are you aware of how comical you must appear to others when you surround yourself with such books and yet you radiate about as much positivity as a frightened dog?

A million books will never make you "positive" -- the action is up to you! Inspirational and positive thinking books are worth their weight in gold if you put what they say into action. That is what positive thinking is all about -- ACTION! I know people who have become millionaires because they not only read but also practised positive thinking. Your life can be transformed by believing wholeheartedly in such books, and putting their content into practice. But then maybe you are just one of the many who prefer just to read, remain inwardly negative and go on achieving nothing.

But shouldn't one consider all angles of a situation, positive and negative?, you may say. This is certainly true, but let's face it, if you really want something in life there is only one way to think about it and that is POSITIVELY! Start thinking about "all angles" of your objective and you will end up thinking yourself out of it! You've got to be single-minded, and ruthlessly so.

To allow negative thoughts house room in the sanctuary of your mind you interfere with the powerful MAGNETIC ATTRACTION set up by your visualisations. Visualising can work like magic in bringing your goal to you. The waves of magnetic power and attraction generated by your visualisations act like an irresistible force in bringing what you desire. But negative thoughts counteract these powerful magnetic waves and destroy completely your chances of success. You must believe with all your being that what you want will be yours, no matter how unlikely success may seem! Being "positive" is easy when once you understand that the human mind contains the most potent force there is -- the power to work miracles, move mountains, accomplish the impossible. Everything is possible to him who believes -- nothing is possible to him who doesn't!!

Think positive, act positive -- see the bright, constructive side of every situation. There are two sides to all situations -- not one! Constantly goad yourself into positive thinking until it becomes a habit with you.

So how do I think positively?, you may ask. The technique is to kill every negative thought dead in its tracks. Immediately a negative thought appears replace it instantly with a positive thought. This is "thought alchemy": the transmutation of base, inferior thinking into superior, positive thought.

THE WHOLE STORY OF MIND VISUALISATIONS IN ONE BRIEF COURSE!

This course has given you the meat of visualisation. It could have been thickly "padded" to provide "reading entertainment", but this is not a novel or merely something to temporarily lift your spirits. I want to help you achieve your goals so I haven't beaten around the bush. Visualisation -- basic using of the occult -- to gain material and spiritual objectives, is really so elementary that it can all be said in a few sentences. Yet books upon books have been written upon the subject. But isn't this like so much else? Take, for example, the Christian message -- it is so simple and basic, and can be summed up in a few words, and yet thousands upon thousands of books have been written about it.

NOW COME SOME "QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS"!

You have been given the basic "meat" of occult mind visualisations -- it is now up to you to use them and get results!

So as to clarify a few points for some of you I think a series of "questions and answers" may prove helpful:

QUESTION: I find it difficult to visualise what I want. What can I do?

ANSWER: Your desire for what you want probably isn't strong enough! When you want something really badly visualisation becomes no problem. For example, if you have been without food for several days (an experience which, alas, most of us have not had. A taste of genuine hunger would do our over-fed and over-pampered disease-ridden bodies a world of good!) you would not find any difficulty seeing in your mind's eye your favourite dish! You would see it so vividly, so clearly that the "pain" would become unbearable!!

QUESTION: I feel a little guilty visualising material things. Shouldn't we use this power to grow closer to God instead of mere material things?

ANSWER: Agreed! We should use our minds, and more importantly, our hearts, to grow closer to God, and the Glorious Essence of Life. But just as man should "not live by bread alone" neither should he live "by God alone"! This is not to sound blasphemous. To the contrary, this is an expression of Divine Will! God wants us to have material things! The old idea that to be "near to God" one "must be poor" is a total, complete, hideous LIE! God is the "Supreme Billionaire" -- He has created, and still creates, endless, limitless riches on the Earth, and through the Universe! Prosperity, Abundance, Limitless Riches are the very essence of God! Everywhere there are endless riches -- millions of trees, billions of creatures, billions of stars, planets, galaxies. God isn't "poor" -- and neither should we, His children, be poor, spiritually or materially!

Much has been written on this theme by inspirational authors Catherine Ponder and Joseph Murphy. I cannot praise these authors' books too highly if you need assurances on this point. Their books explain this matter far more eloquently and logically than I can do here.

QUESTION: Isn't there already too much greed for material things in the world today?

ANSWER: True! There certainly is a lot of greed around today! But "greed" can be good as well as bad! Unfortunately all we see is the "bad" sort. If in order to get what you want you have to trample on people, blackmail them, harrass them as seems to be so prevalent everywhere then that, of course, is "bad" greed. People forever want something for nothing. Fortunately mind visualisations will not work for you if this is your attitude. Being well-off is God's Will, no matter what some twisted thinking people may say, and you can be rich without trampling on others.

If you believe otherwise then this is unfortunate because this very attitude will prevent you from ever becoming rich, and by the word "rich" I mean it in its truest sense, i.e. to be rich within and without. Read Ponder and Murphy to really help you overcome these negative thoughts, and send you soaring to new dimensions of outlook that will set you on the road to prosperity!

QUESTION: I would like to read more about using the mind to get material things. Can you recommend some books?

ANSWER: There are so many excellent books on this subject sold by the publishers of this course that it is really quite a job to know what to recommend! But I can tell you what books have been of most help to me. I have found "Think and Grow Rich" to be worth its weight in gold although it may not be everybody's cup of tea. It is basically aimed at the really ambitious type of person. "Money Magnetism: How to Grow Rich Beyond Your Wildest Dreams" by Norvell is another beauty -- it makes you "feel rich" just reading it!! And as mentioned before, books by Joseph Murphy and Catherine Ponder are extremely inspiring. Ophiel is another good author. He is a little eccentric, but his material is full of good occult instruction and his approach is very practical. As for the "rituals and spells -- miracles overnight" type book ... I feel I cannot vouch for books of this nature having never tried them. The claims for these books that their authors make are quite amazing, but more than one person to whom I have spoken to about them swear that their systems work. Using the mind alone without the aid of rituals has always been effective for me and will be for you, too, if you follow the rules. But if you feel that the spells and rituals system may help you by all means try them.

QUESTION: I don't believe Visualisation works. I've tried it and tried it again, and have done exactly what the books have said. I don't understand why you insist that it works when it doesn't do a thing for me.

ANSWER: Many folk are in this boat! They try and try again and still nothing happens. They quit and become disillusioned. But there are reasons for this, and one must be brutally honest if one wants to know the truth of the matter! Human nature blames everything but itself! Business men blame "adverse trading conditions" and unions blame bosses, wives blame husbands, and everyone blames either the government or the weather!! 90% of all failure is directly or indirectly SELF-INDUCED and not due to "circumstances"!! For Pete's sake be a man and face up to yourself! If the Power of Mind has worked for me and others why in heaven's name shouldn't it work for you? The same force is available to all. It has nothing to do with "intelligence" or "I.Q." (my own I.Q. is "below average" -- this is nothing to brag about, but I am just trying to demonstrate a point).

If mind visualisations aren't working for you you should ask yourself these things:

(1) Is my goal a reasonable one -- an attainable one? If you want a sum of money that may be beyond your reach -- say £5,000 -- your goal is reasonable. If you have only £100 and you want £5,000 that is still reasonable. Your subconscious will open "magic doors" to your receiving it. But if you have no unusual ability and you want to be a millionaire within six months that, of course, is totally unrealistic. However, I have known individuals who have wanted just that and who became disillusioned with mind visualisations when it didn't happen.

Deciding what is "realistic" isn't always so clear cut. Only your own level of wisdom can settle this matter for you.

(2) Is my desire strong enough for what I want? Man, you've really got to want that thing. You'll never succeed otherwise!

(3) Am I visualising 2/3 times a day, and doing it well? If you miss the odd ten minutes here and there and think it doesn't matter then you are deluding yourself. You can't cheat your subconscious!

QUESTION: How will my subconscious "produce" the thing I want after visualising it?

ANSWER: There is no set, straight answer to this question. Whilst sometimes results may occur in a seemingly "miraculous" way, and within days -- even hours of the start of your mind visualisations, most times it will happen in more of a mundane manner. For example you may be a widow and far from well-off. You need £500 for something important. You visualise for about two weeks and then you learn of a well paid part time job available locally. You learn of this job "by accident". You get the job, but it doesn't land you with the £500 you need rather quickly. Yet the chances are that this new situation will expose you to a unique opportunity of acquiring the money, in a way you do not yet know. Of course in the meantime you keep on visualising -- your subconscious has led you part of the way to the £500, and you naturally want to finish the job which it will do so in its own way. Incidentally, the subconscious can be "trained" to constantly educe a flow of money. There is not room for me here to go into this -- it is a subject that would in itself fill a book. I understand that the publishers of this course will be releasing such a book in the very near future. Write to them for details.

How the subconscious will produce the thing you want is the problem of your Inner Mind. If you can, you would do best to forget this problem. After all when you plant a seed in the earth you do not worry about how a plant or tree is going to materialise from it -- that is nature's problem. But if you can't get the thing out of your mind do at least think positively about it. To think negatively is to defuse the power of your efforts.

QUESTION: How long must I wait before I see results?

ANSWER: Again this depends on what is visualised and how badly you need what you want. There are many cases of people getting the thing they desired the very first day they visualised. But others have had to wait months before anything happened.

There is a school of thought which says that one should set a date -- even a time -- for when the desired goal should be accomplished. Depending on what the goal is the visualiser may set a date that is within one week from the time he begins on his quest, or a month if he feels more time is needed to achieve a more complex objective. The reasoning behind the date setting idea is that the subconscious feels impelled to achieve the goal by the date given. And the stronger one visualises the goal being achieved by the date required the better the subconscious responds, so say the advocates of "date setting".

Another school of thought suggests that the subconscious mind works better when it is unhampered by a "time schedule", and that it will materialise one's goal in its own way.

I don't know which of these two concepts to recommend, but suggest that you try them out for yourself. I very rarely bother with giving my subconscious a date by which to do its job although on occasions when I have done this -- when I was in a hurry for results -- it did work for me. Try it for yourself, but be sure that if and when you set a time you must believe that your objective will be attained by that time. All occult work of the mind revolves around belief -- nothing can ever be achieved without it, regardless of what system you are using.

QUESTION: Will visualisation help me in health problems?

ANSWER: You bet it will! Visualisation is very potent with health problems although I will be perfectly frank and say that I got much better results with other people's health difficulties than my own!

The awkward thing about attempting to heal one's own health problem is that by virtue of being unwell one's mind isn't as clear and as lucid as it should be. This is particularly true if one is suffering from a severe cold, headache, over-fatigue, or something causing severe pain. The role of visualisation in health matters is far too big a subject for me to tackle right here. Many fine books have been written on this theme and I suggest you try one of these. One particularly good book is "Amazing Secrets of Psychic Healing" by Joseph Weed and Benjamin Bibb. It is available from the publishers of this course.

IT REALLY CAN BE ALL SO EASY!

In this short course I have given you the basic "meat" of Visualisation -- the art of achieving goals through the occult power of mind. You have seen that all that is involved is the use of your own imagination and the desire to win. There is nothing else to it. Some folk like to make it sound complex and shroud it in mystery. But it is easy as ABC. Some people love anything that sounds complicated and mysterious. That's their choice. I hope it isn't yours. You can get virtually anything you want by following the simple formula given in this course. Re-read what has been written, take notes, and make sure you thoroughly understand everything, and then get into ACTION! This Grimoire is the genuine handbook of Frater Malak, Vice President of the Hermetic Order of Campo Santo, and is the result of 30 years of painstaking research into thousands of Spells and Rituals taken from the four corners of the world. The Mystic Grimoire contains only those Spells and Rituals which Malak has found from experience always work. He has eliminated all Spells and Rituals which only partially work or are ineffective. We believe that this could be the MOST POWERFUL Grimoire in existence! It is written in plain language, contains no difficult to follow archaic terms. The Spells and Rituals, although extremely powerful in their effects, are utterly simple to do, and you need only simple, ordinary candles to help you in their execution.
