

Jean de Cabalis - Guardian Orders Paper

For Members of the Following Orders

Memo on, Of Light, Life and Love

Essaier LXXVI

Memo on, Of Light, Life and Love

By Michael Freedman

We see the three words Light, Life and Love expressing three progressively more complex levels of manifestation. LIGHT = pure energy, manifesting and interweaving in progressively more complex forms; until at a sufficiently complex level, organic life can be sustained. = LIFE.

Organic matter evolves, changes and interacts, until at a sufficiently complex level, it can sustain some degree of self-awareness; and eventually, such a degree of self-awareness that some such term as self-reflexive awareness should be used, as in humans, primates, and quite possibly quite a few other species [cats and dogs for example]. At this level, there is capacity for complex emotions as LOVE.

Thus Light, Life and Love has always been the traditional keywords of our Order in which comes about the Great Work of

"Lifting all Living Beings to Full Awareness in Light, Life and Love"

I don't know what 'full awareness' for my cat might be, but I have endeavoured by a judicious mix of conditioning [to suit my needs in a cat] and freedom [to suit his] to enable to my cat to live life to whatever full a cat may achieve. I seem to have succeeded here - both he and his lately deceased brother at age 12 [of cancer of the liver] we great ratters; defended their territory by working as a team,: I once saw Archer (pet cat - Ed) lure a foreign cat down our side path, by slowly backing step by step, until Heidi (another pet cat -Ed) [sitting in a tree branch over the path] was able to leap down right on top of the foreigner.

Yet, in the house, I only have to clap my hand sharply twice, for them to stop whatever they are doing, and look at me to find out what they were doing or about to do wrong. And that is their only punishment.

Actually, I believe that if you treat cats and 8 or 9 year old boys as being at pretty much the same level of evolution, you are probably not far wrong grins. I never use the handclaps outside of the house. That is their world, to live in as they will.

All this I give this as an example of fairly 'full awareness' outside of our own species. In mystical moments, I speculate that what the biosphere is all about is evolving towards some sort of macro-awareness for the planet as a whole. Call it Gaia, maybe. In some of our rituals this notion is expressed now as:

"The Mother is waiting to be Born"

But, outside of our ritual work, the phrase is:

"The Mother is waiting to come to life."

Deliberately ambiguous; Will the Mother Earth's consciousness emerge in much the same way as ours did about a million [give or take] years ago? Or is she now fully conscious in whatever unimaginable way a biosphere might be, and is waiting for us to be aware of Her and our place within Her?

OTOH, I doubt my blood cells or even my brain neuron have any awareness of Michael Freedman. There are much more than non-organic life must have minimal awareness, from our point of view, again unimaginable. Self-reflexive thought only emerges as a result of the functioning of the whole human organism.

Gaia's level of 'thought' and 'consciousness', emerging as the result of the functioning of the whole biosphere, could be no more comparable with ours, than ours is comparable with that of an individual neuron.

In the Orders rituals, we use the following chant.

Ba-shem "Elyon, [Most High]
Horethenu 'Elohim, [Our Mother/Father' God]
'Em Ruach 'Elohim, [Mother Spirit God]
Yaho-Yeledh 'Elohim, [Divine Child God]

Shekinah Gaia 'Em-shalom. [Indwelling Earth, Mother of wholeness]

It does contain neologisms, but as a spiritual formula, it expresses much of such 'theology' as the Guardians now have. There is one last phrase in this set of interconnected phrase and idea. It tells us how to achieve all those noble ideals above: the traditional four-fold work of the High Magician.

To Know to Will, to Dare, to be Silent.
To Know (Y.D.Ay) - Will (K.V.N)- Dare (H.Ay.Z) - Be silent (D.M.M)
YDy - KWN - HAYZ - DMM = 326

326 which is the esoteric name for Jesus Ie: I.H.Sh.V.H Think on it and oh BTW the Guardian Order does not interpret "be silent" as "keep secret", but as 'be in the silence' I.e To meditate [and especially Vigil - Jean].